Notes & bibliography is the Chicago-style citation typically used by authors in the humanities. Each footnote is accompanied by an entry in the bibliography.

For more examples and further information see the Chicago Manual of Style in print or online. The Citation Quick Guide is particularly useful.

Book | Print

Notes

Bibliography entries

Book in translation | Print

Note

Bibliography entry

Chapter or other part of an edited book | Print

Note

Bibliography entry

Book | Online

Indicate the database or URL.

Notes

Bibliography entries

Journal article | Print

Note
Bibliography entry

Journal article | Online
Indicate the database, DOI, or URL.

Note

Bibliography entry

News or magazine article | Print

Note

Bibliography entry

News or magazine article | Online

Indicate the database or URL.

Note
Bibliography entry

Book review

Notes

Bibliography entries

Thesis or dissertation

Note

Bibliography entry

Website content

Note
Bibliography entry